

Venue pack: Divadlo Kampa

Address:

Nosticova 2a Malá Strana, Praha 1

Website:

www.divadlokampa.cz/ (in Czech)

Summary:

Divadlo Kampa is a black box theatre with end on, raked seating. This theatre is on the first floor and is reasonably equipped for a fringe theatre. This venue is best suited to theatre (including physical theatre, children's theatre and puppetry).

'The Man Who Was Thursday', Three Bridges, 2019

Seating

57 individual raked seats. An extra row can be added on the floor but this does affect sightlines.

Stage Dimensions

Width: 6.3, Depth: 5m (from rear drapes to audience with 57 seats). Height: flat floor. Height from stage to lower cord of truss: 3.3

Stage is vinyl dance floor over wood (not sprung)

Sight lines

Reasonable, though floor work can be difficult to see.

Access

Up 1 flight of stairs, there is a wheelchair lift.

Audience Entrance

As Access. There is only one entrance to this venue.

Dressing Rooms

1 small at rear of stage.

Toilets

Shared with audience upstairs from theatre. Also shower.

Walls

Black drapes at rear and SR, black painted wall SL.

Sound

Basic sound system including CD player

Mixer Soundcraft MFX 12 way

Speakers Bose

Monitors none

Microphones 4 (tbc) with 2 stands

Lighting

Lighting desk Piccolo 12 way – basic memory desk with individual faders.

Basic 2 colour wash with 2 focusable profiles (lekos). Some additional PARS are available but there are only limited number of channels.

Storage

Limited.

This theatre does have a reasonable selection of furniture to use, including chairs and tables.

Venue Photos:

More photos available at:

<https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B4LaZ1M6qtubU5DZW84MEZrNVE>

Looking at SR drapes

Looking at SL wall

Foyer-theatre entrance on R

Showing fixed screen

Pan view of auditorium

Pan view of stage

